

♡ FEBRUARY 2021

How to keep your girl OFF the boy-crazy train!

Watch the February coaching video from Dannah Gresh, then read through this one sheet.

By the time a girl is 11-years-old, 30 percent of her peers have boyfriends at any given time. Is that OK?

The biggest problem with a boy-crazy mentality is that it leads a girl to believe the lie that a boy is the source of love. God's Words says otherwise:

Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God.

1 JOHN 4:7

♡ Love comes from God.

Not from a boy. Not from a romantic movie. And not even from a really great marriage. Love comes from God!

And tragic as this may be to your February 14th celebrations . . . love doesn't even come from Valentine's Day! In fact, it's rather sad that we've made Valentine's Day about Cupid and romantic love. Did you know the first people who celebrated the holiday were actually observing the passionate death of a Christian martyr who died on February 14th! It was originally a great tribute to those whose lives were literally consumed by their love for Christ!

We're going to use this month's infatuation with romantic love to root your daughter in God's love. We've even commissioned the design of some Valentine's Day cards that she can use to share His love with others.

But I hope you're feeling crafty, Mom.

Because you are also going to create some of your own Christ-centered masterpieces!

LET'S GET TO IT!

Valentine's Day Crafts"

This month's mom+daughter connection is all about:
planting a foundation for True Love into your daughter's heart.

As promised, we've done most of the planning and thinking for you to have a formative connecting conversation with your girl.

1 Watch "3 Christ-Centered Valentine's Day Crafts" featuring lead teacher Staci Rudolph. You and your daughter might want to look at it ahead of time so you can decide which craft supplies you need to collect.

2 Make one of the crafts suggested in the video or design one of your own. Just be sure it directs the recipient to the love of God. As you create something beautiful, have a conversation about God's love. You can also use this time to write on the True Girl Valentine's Day cards you plan to share with friends.

3 Read 1 John 4:7 with your daughter while you're crafting. Talk to her about the verse. Here are some discussion questions:

- ♥ Do you think Valentine's Day does or does not support this Bible verse?
- ♥ According to love notes, movies and popular songs, where do you think the world's love comes from? What's wrong with that?
- ♥ How can you keep your mind aware of the Truth that God is the source of True Love?

You might also use this conversation time to check in on her devos and make sure she's doing OK on her own. If she's struggling, talk about why and encourage her to press into developing the habit of reading God's Word and journaling every day. We all could use a little motivation now and then to stick with it.

4 Have fun delivering your Valentines. And maybe post a photo of your experience on social media for me to see. I love hearing about your time together.
