MOM + DAUGHTER DATE

Did you ever think there'd come a day when we couldn't travel?! I sure didn't. I mean, I literally spend most of the year traveling all around the world to share the Good News about Jesus.

God calls us ALL to be "travelers," making disciples as we go! Even if we can't hop on a plane or drive cross-country, God is still calling us to spread His Word. And let's be honest, sometimes the Christian responsibility to share the gospel is the "elephant in the room." We ignore it! This month we'll talk about it and it's going to be a fun—and fearless—experience as we learn about The Great Commission.

Inviting others to follow you as you follow God is never easy. But here's what God told Joshua when He was afraid:

This is my command—
be strong and courageous!
Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.

JOSHUA 1:9

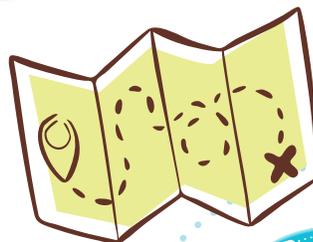

God told Joshua to be strong and courageous? Yup, as a matter of fact, He commanded it. But God also reminded Joshua that He will be with him everywhere he goes. What a comfort!

God is with you this month as you disciple your daughter. And He is with her as she begins to disciple others!

So now, it's adventure time!

PREPARING FOR YOUR SEPTEMBER
MOM+DAUGHTER DATE

Traveling
the world to share the Good News!

SUBJECT:

Learning how to share the gospel

SETTING:

Your home

MATERIALS YOU'LL NEED:

Computer, laptop, or smartphone

Letterhead/Envelopes

Your Bibles

HEY MOM,

before we start our date, this may be a good time to talk to your daughter about her personal relationship with Jesus. We've included the True Girl booklet titled Jesus Loves Children: Good News for Kids to equip her to share the gospel with others, but it might first be used for YOU to share it with her!

This month's mom+daughter connection experience is an invitation to begin learning how to share the gospel. As always, we've done most of the planning for you to have a formative connecting conversation with your girl.

STEP 1 Watch Staci's coaching video. This will help you and your daughter think of creative ways to share the gospel.

STEP 2 Take a virtual vacation. Pull up a map of the world online. You and your daughter pick one place that you would like to visit. (Check out your True Girl coloring meditation page for a few fun locations if you need a starting point!) Find out a little bit about that country or city. What are they known for? What do they eat? What are some famous landmarks there? Be sure to research their spiritual beliefs. Then, talk about how you might share the gospel in that city or country.

STEP 3 Read Matthew 28:19,20 and Joshua 1:9 with your daughter. Here are some discussion questions:

♥ What does Matthew 28:19,20 command us to do? How would you introduce someone to Jesus?

♥ What does Matthew 28:20 and Joshua 1:9 promise when we feel afraid of inviting others to follow God? What are some things you can do or say to remember God is always with you?

STEP 4 Write a letter. Now it's time to think about real people you and your daughter know who need Jesus. Break out some letterhead and envelopes. Write a letter to the person God brings to your mind, telling them the good news about Jesus. A good place to start is with your testimony. Why does Jesus mean so much to you?

Okay, so here's the last step:

MAIL YOUR LETTERS!

We are praying for your daughter and anyone else you share the gospel with this month. We'd love to hear from you if someone makes a decision to follow Christ.

Getting Started

How to use this month's discipleship tools to strengthen your daughter's faith.

Watch the coaching video.

This month, we'll learn that "God Calls Us All". Sharing the love of Christ in a world that's so directly rejecting Him is no small task. The truth is, talking to others about Jesus can be kind of scary. But that doesn't give you—or your daughter—a bye. Once we come to know Jesus, we all get the same set of marching orders. Tell others about Him!

Read the date plan and familiarize yourself with the topic.

You're holding the plans to a very simple mom+daughter date to take a virtual vacation and send a letter of encouragement and Truth to someone God puts on your daughter's heart.

Schedule your date!

No waiting in line for TSA this month! You'll just need to set aside an hour and a half to take your virtual vacation, use your discussion questions, and write your letter.

4

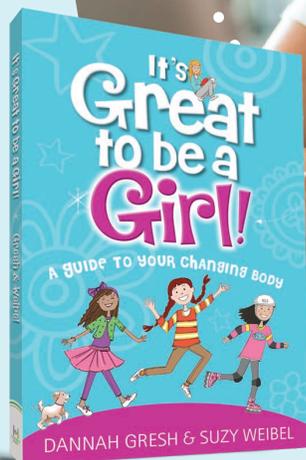

Reveal the box to your daughter and start using the discipleship tools to get her into God's Word.

But first, pull The Adventure Box charm—an elephant—from the box. You'll always present her special charms AFTER you do your mom+daughter dates.

Anchor her to God's Truth in a gender confused world.
